

How dare you broadcast different news to us in the US than to Europe? The airways belong to us and I do not appreciate your propagandizing in the US and giving the Europeans different news because you want to shape our opinions. We have known you were not giving us "straight" information but this just makes it hit home harder. Please change your way of doing business - and do NOT deregulate any more of our news sources.